

WASHINGTON, D.C. , On November 5, 2005, Congressman John W. Olver (D-1st District) shared the f

"Over a 15 year period, the U.S. has engaged in two wars in Iraq. President Herbert Walker Bush, with

"In contrast, George W. Bush, without U.N. support and only a small coalition of the so called 'willing,'

"Our casualties in this ill-conceived war in Iraq have now passed 2,038 American soldiers killed. More

"The creation of the Iraqi constitution is a logical first step toward stability and an exit strateg, but the c

"This newly elected, more representative Iraqi Parliament will almost certainly demand the U.S. withdr

"Several steps should now be taken in preparation for an orderly withdrawal. The United States shoul

"These are important steps because in order for stability and Democracy in Iraq to prevail, our military r

###